

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR ALL OUR STUDENTS AND PARENTS

Code of Conduct

At Revise.ie we aim to provide a friendly, safe and comfortable study environment for our students.

In order to achieve this all students must adhere to our code of conduct as listed below –

- Phone usage during study sessions is strictly for school work.
- No talking or messing.
- No headphones.
- All students must study and not disturb others.
- All students can join or leave ONLY at official break times and must sign out.
- Students are not allowed to move around during sessions. (Looking for books etc).
- Students MUST always follow any instructions given by any supervisor. We will not tolerate any disrespect.
- Student must attend all classes and study periods they are enrolled for. There is no refund for classes or study missed.
- Students are responsible for all their belongings.
- The ultimate responsibility for students is with their parents.
- Revise.ie will not bear any responsibility for a student who leaves the premises.

If we do have any problem with a student we will follow the steps below.

Step 1. He / she will be given one verbal warning.

Step 2. We will contact student's parent.

Step 3. If the problem then persists the student will be asked to leave study. Any student who is asked to leave will not be permitted to return for the rest of the year. Parent will be informed.
